Blow up the humanities

Toby Miller

Temple University Press, 2012

ISBN: 978-1-4399-0983-6

"What kind of curriculum should replace the banal Arnoldian training of Humanities One and supine vocational training of Humanities Two in the creative industries? What can substitute for nostalgic class parthenogenesis and instrumental conservatory instruction? "

Cognitive capitalism, education, and digital labor

Michael A. Peters, Ergin Bulut (eds.)

Peter Lang, 2011

ISBN: 978-1-4331-0981-2

"The way revolutions turn out historically and people's revolutionary becoming. These relate to two different sets of people. Men's [sic] only hope lies in a revolutionary becoming: the only way of casting off their shame or responding to what is intolerable"
